MARGARET MORFORD Once Upon a Time

Margaret will present a half day seminar using story telling as a means to build a common sense of purpose among groups or communities as well as to illustrate complex concepts.

If you have never heard Margaret present, you will not want to miss this. She is the CEO for The HR Edge, Inc. She is the author of several business books and appears regularly on local ABC, CBS and Fox television affiliates.

If you have heard Margaret previously, you know what a dynamic speaker and presenter that she is. You will not be disappointed.

Get your reservations in early as seating will be limited. The last time we had Margaret speaking, it filled up quickly.

See attached flyer for more details.

SCHOLARSHIP UPDATE

2017 Scholarship information is being circulated. See attached flyers. This year we have decided to do something new. While the traditional student scholarship will remain the same as last year, we are now offering one for the adult learner who wants to continue their education. This is for HAMA members who have unreimbursed education expenses through the end of this year (meaning that you could be taking a summer and/or fall semester class. Details are listed on the flyers. If the applicant is not currently a member, they can join at the $45 membership fee and submit the application.

Note: for the traditional student application, you only need to be an employee of a HAMA company (not an individual member).

If you have any questions on this, don't hesitate to reach out to me.

Finally, we do need sponsors for these scholarships, so please consider donating to this fund. Forms are attached. If your company donates to this fund, we will put your logo on the HAMA website.

EDUCATION UPDATES

We are in the process of putting together our spring classes. Stay tuned for details on those.
